13th Beach Golf

The Beach Course was opened in December 2001. The challenging and natural links style course has already received high accolades, being voted in the countries top 25 golf courses and the 7th best public access facility (The Golf Course Guide, 2007).

The Creek Course designed by Tony Cashmore in conjunction with 6 time major championship winner Nick Faldo, is set to be a wonderful complement to The Beach Course, with the accolades and praise expected to continue.

Guest staying at the Bunker receive Members Guest's rates which is up to 30% off the standard public rates.

13th BB Location

Thirteenth Beach Golf Links is located on the picturesque Bellarine Peninsula, 65 minutes south west of Melbourne, 15 minutes from Geelong and 5 minutes from the Barwon Heads township. It is a 15 minute drive to Torquay and the Great Ocean Road, and a 20 minute drive to the Queenscliff Ferry.

The 13th Beach Surf is renowned among boarders but its clean sand and rolling waves should not be left only to them. Those looking to swim, walk or run along the shore will enjoy their easy access from 'The Bunker'. The 13th Beach Surf Life Saving Club provides holiday makers with patrols and flagged areas over the Summer months.
